Lafayette Named "Father of the Lafayette" for 40 Years

SIRLIN DISAGREES WITH ACTION ON THE MARQUIS

By John Bruce

Roger Sirlin, '63 president of the Lafayette Studentorphic Action Committee, said last Wednesday night meeting that he was in "full disagreement with the council" suggesting that the Marquis is a "waste of Student Council money." He stated that out of twelve or thirteen short stories submitted for the last Marquis, the board chose the four that were "the most interesting," according to Sirlin.

"What the amendment says to me," Sirlin said, "is that Lafayette is not going to be a magazine of political action nor will it be a magazine of political thought. It will be a magazine of political propaganda." Sirlin said he went to the meeting with a letter from his father, who was a World War II veteran, expressing his concern for the future of the Marquis.

Sirlin said that he was concerned about the future of the Marquis, as it is the only student publication that covers the views of all students, regardless of political affiliation. He said that the Marquis is important because it provides a platform for all students to express their opinions, and that the council's decision to ban political content was a "step backwards." Sirlin is a junior political science major who has been on the Marquis staff since his freshman year.

Lawrence

Although he never studied here and never taught here, Lawrence was a part of Lafayette College as very few men have been.

For 40 years, the printing shop foreman known to everyone as just "Lawrence" was a steady presence on campus. Their actions may well have been to be recognized on campus. Their actions may well have been.

The Lafayette chapter of the Young Americans for Freedom has finally been recognized after over a year of wrangling by the student body and the Lafayette administration.

The riot can't be justified, by any stretch of the imagination. The Lafayette as the undying, unchanging, non-revolving voice on current campus opinion, set student attempts for treatment as more. Leopards Collect Third Win; Waynesburg Defeated 10-0

By HARRY SPIESS

Lafayette's 10-0 defeat at the hands of a powerful Rutgers' football unit two weeks ago was no total loss. The Leopard's 215-pound tackle, Bob Leciston, was named to the All-MAC divisional team of the Eastern College Conference. Halfback Ray Moyer was awarded honorable mention for his fine play in the same game. Leciston was named Player of the Week by the Lafayette Leopards after his outstanding work on both offense and defense against Penn. Since then Leciston's play has been improving to such an extent that his name has been mentioned as a possible All-MAC tackle. Leciston's captain, Jim McGonagle, has said that "If Leciston plays well against Lehigh, his chances will be good of making the All-MAC team." Unfortunately Leciston was sick and unable to make the trip to Waynesburg last weekend.
